OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

[illegible]

WASHINGTON [illegible] Sept [illegible] 1866

[illegible] is a tale [illegible] bits [illegible] exaggerate [illegible] say that [illegible] the [illegible] will [illegible] in nothing [illegible] overdo [illegible] the business of minute [illegible] It is an unprecedented thing. It is generally understood that when the President of the United States goes abroad all [illegible] it is expected that the President will [illegible] Instead [illegible] has been [illegible] himself [illegible] the face of every Republican he meets on his trip [illegible] with any self-respect [illegible] Mr. Seward [illegible] public [illegible] the President [illegible] Congress and the Republican [illegible] Philadelphia [illegible] when [illegible] New [illegible] and tried [illegible] New York speech [illegible]

[illegible]

It was at the Delmonico dinner that the President committed his worst fault. At that dinner were present as guests such men as Governor Fenton and Senator Morgan [illegible] Republicans yet the President [illegible] the dinner table audience [illegible] rebels [illegible] FIGHTING [illegible] In other words he alleged that [illegible] are traitors and rebels just as Davis [illegible] and their accomplices [illegible] This monstrous insult [illegible] resent [illegible] because it was the [illegible] who uttered the words [illegible] the proceedings.

The [illegible] Mr. Seward's speech in which he [illegible] the passage of Mr. Lincoln [illegible] the passage of Mr. Johnson [illegible] excites much comment. Notice it again.

Well [illegible] the heart [illegible] Washington [illegible] our way [illegible] dinner [illegible] President [illegible] said [illegible] What did you think I [illegible] in Baltimore [illegible] the President [illegible] was just [illegible] McCall [illegible] who has [illegible] of the road [illegible] to get [illegible] and as to [illegible] were nothing but friends.

What a shameful exhibition is this. Everybody knows that the men who heralded Johnson when he passed through Baltimore were the very men who tried to murder Lincoln. Is it because they [illegible] love the Union? Not at all. It is simply because they hope [illegible] return to power through the present Executive. The men whom these rebels hate are Radical Republicans and they hate them so fiercely that they actually love Seward and Johnson because through a singular contradiction of circumstances Seward and Johnson also hate the Radicals.

During the trip of the President the axe has been [illegible] and laid away. No more heads will fall till he gets back. Perhaps there will be no more removals till after the elections. It is said that Seward has discovered the wholesale removals are not helping [illegible] policy. It simply multiplies election agents. A Republican who has been turned out of [illegible] harder to carry the elections against the President than any other kind of a Republican. Then again [illegible] upon the selection of Johnson for the vacated offices.

In this city it was supposed that before this [illegible] the postmaster would be removed [illegible] still remains. [illegible] Clapham the Collector of Internal Revenue [illegible] watched by a dozen hungry [illegible] has not been removed. French the commissioner of public buildings has been lauding the President with the [illegible] and sending his articles to the papers [illegible] It is to be hoped that such loathsome fawning will not avail.

The hardest blow received by the Radicals in a long time is a letter from Rev. Henry Ward Beecher in which he goes over to the Johnson party. That is, he advises his friends to vote for men who favor the immediate admission of the Southern States. His letter will do more for the President's policy than a hundred speeches from the President or any member of his Cabinet. It is the saddest fate of a good man on record. The worst of it is that the letter was totally unexpected by Mr. Beecher's friends. He has endorsed the President's course with freedom among his friends and it has been rumored that he would take an early opportunity to say a good word for the Republicans. This letter astounds Copperheads as well as Radicals. The former had no idea that there was so much piety within their ranks. As for the Radicals they will have to grin and bear it. They can survive the blow [illegible] It will be very hard for the Republicans [illegible] to swallow his religious teachings after this disgraceful exhibition for under the circumstances I must call it so.

The campaign is very handy in several of the States. Though Mr. Beecher advises the people to vote for Copperhead candidates in preference to Republicans, they do not seem inclined to do so. There is much excitement in Pennsylvania. A newspaper published in the [illegible] of the State says

[illegible]

The private [illegible] received here from leading Republicans [illegible] the State [illegible] with [illegible] The total [illegible] the Congress [illegible] The President [illegible] be elected and he [illegible] care much [illegible] that he and [illegible] Congress [illegible] of the Republicans [illegible] the [illegible] Congress [illegible]

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT

One of the most frightful accidents that has ever occurred in Montana happened on Monday last at [illegible] situated near the city of [illegible] A new [illegible] had just arrived [illegible] from Minnesota named John Ackley [illegible] slipped from [illegible] fell [illegible] saw [illegible] Olson was repeatedly [illegible] inches in length [illegible] the axle [illegible] Olson [illegible] that [illegible] this city [illegible] for fourteen hours after the accident

ACCIDENT AND DEATH

On the 20th ult while Henry Long was at work [illegible] to the Lafayette Brewery [illegible] after [illegible] gave way and [illegible] fell [illegible] seven feet striking first upon [illegible] head [illegible] the fall all that portion of his body below [illegible] was paralyzed and all medical [illegible] on Monday last he died, having been delirious for several days previous to his death. His funeral took place on Tuesday

THE CAPTURED PARTY

The three men captured and murdered by Indians while descending the Missouri in a small boat were [illegible] and [illegible] Wm Wheeler. All had worked in German Flat Alder gulch. Mr. [illegible] leaves a family in Maine. Mr. Weeden, at one time kept a store in Nevada [illegible] leaves a married daughter [illegible] Minnesota

R[illegible] BAR.—E. S. McLaughlin made us a call yesterday. This gentleman informs us that but little doing at mining in Alturas county. The Idaho company are taking out ore and occasionally set their ten [illegible] in motion. Work is progressing at the Ada Elmore ledge. A large quantity of ore is stacked up ready for crushing which will yield from $80 to $100 to the ton.

A great error has been made by parties having charge of affairs for Eastern capitalists in this camp. In the first place their estimations of the expenses of erecting machinery and opening mines in Idaho has been too small by one half. When their freights, labor, supplies and other expenses are paid their ready capital is nearly if not entirely exhausted hence all this capital necessarily remains idle until more can be procured from the East to operate with in the mines. The actual and necessary expenses should be more carefully calculated in the future by agents and superintendents. In one instance [illegible] per [illegible] $6 per day—where a hired hand in the Eastern States receives but seventy-five cents or one dollar. Board in the mines is from 12 [illegible] $24 per week; freights from $5 to $40 per 100 pounds according to the season of the year and the condition of the roads; when in the States for the same distance only one and one half dollars per 100 lbs would be demanded.

Let no more enterprises hang fire—supply your agents with the necessary funds to complete their [illegible] and your capital invested will respond with a bountiful interest.—[illegible] Times

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept 4, 1866

Everybody is talking about the President and his trip, and I think I do not exaggerate when I say, that nearly every respectable man is disgusted with the coarse political speeches of the Executive, and according to present prospects he will gain nothing by his trip, he so overdoes the business of manufacturing political capital. It is an unprecedented thing. It is generally understood that when the President of the United States goes abroad, all citizens should unite to honor him, because of his very high position. For that reason, it is expected that the President will show himself to be a dignified President and not a politician. But see how he, Johnson, has been conducting himself. He slings his slanders into the face of every Republican he meets on his trip—tells them they are traitors—yet they are the very men who elected him to the position he now occupies, or the one from which Booth's bullet promoted him to the Presidency. Yet if Republicans with any self respect stay away, the President and Mr Seward condemn them for that. They must come out to be insulted. Whenever he makes a public speech, the President slanders Congress and the Republicans with a venom one rarely finds among respectable men. Philadelphia, learning this fact, declined to favor the President with an official reception. Notice how he, Seward and tried to laugh it off in the New York speech. McMichael is mayor of Philadelphia, it must be remembered.

"Then we came to Philadelphia, the only city which asked whether we would have a formal or an informal reception. I answered 'just as they pleased.' And when we got there we found the city disorganized and ungoverned—no Mayor, no city authorities, no police—but we found the city so loyal, so peaceful, so zealous in the cause of the National restoration and of reconciliation, that every man was a law unto himself, and I said to myself, 'Blessed is that city that can dispense with a ruler.' [Cheers.] I was reminded on that occasion of a verse of the celebrated John Milton:

'Now let us sing long live the king,
And Gilpin, long live he:
And when he next doth ride again,
May I be there to see.'

I thought that it would be good sense, if not rhyme, to alter it so that it might read,

"Long live my friend McMichael,
And the President, long live he;
And when we next do ride again,
May he be there to see."

It was at the Delmonico dinner that the President committed his worst fault. At that dinner were present as guests such men as Governor Fenton and Senator Morgan, radical Republicans, yet the President in cold blood told his dinner table audience that General Grant had fought rebels on one end of the line, and now he, the President, was FIGHTING REBELS on the other end of the line! In other words, he alleged that Republicans are traitors and rebels, just as Davis, Toombs, and their accomplices were! This monstrous insult was not resented, because it was the President who uttered the words. Yet it was deserving of a reply on the spot, even if it had interfered with the proceedings.

The passage in Mr Seward's speech, in which he had the effrontery to compare the passage of Mr Lincoln through Baltimore and the passage of Mr Johnson, excites much comment. Notice it again:

We left Washington on a tour of duty, a pilgrimage of the heart, not only of the individual heart, but of the heart of the Nation. We are so far on our way. I was warned on the occasion to "beware of the association of the President at Baltimore." [Shame, shame.] Well, on a previous occasion on the passage of the late President to his inauguration, I sent a son of mine to look after his safety. On this occasion I went myself, and what do you think I found in Baltimore? Why, the President found that it was just as much as he could do, with the help of Gen McCallum, who has charge of the road there, to get through and keep up to time, and as to enemies there were nothing but friends.

What a shameful exhibition is this! Everybody knows that the men who heralded Johnson when he passed through Baltimore, were the very men who tried to murder Lincoln. Is it because they now love the Union? Not at all. It is simply because they hope to obtain a return to power through the present Executive. The men who these rebels hate are Radical Republicans, and they hate them so fiercely that they actually love Seward and Johnson because, through a singular contradiction of circumstances Seward and Johnson also hate the Radicals.

During the trip of the President the axe has been wiped and laid away. No more heads will fall till he gets back. Perhaps there will be no more removals till after the elections. It is said that Seward has discovered that wholesale removals are not helping "my policy." It simply multiplies election agents. A Republican who has been turned out of office will work harder to carry the elections against the President than any other kind of a Republican. Then again quarrels arise upon the selection of Johnson for the vacated offices.

In this city it was supposed that before this Bowen, the postmaster, would be removed, but he still remains. So will Clapham, the Collector of Internal Revenue. His place is watched by a dozen hungry Johnson men but he has not been removed. French, the commissioner of public buildings, has been lauding the President with the most fulsome praise, and sending his articles in the papers to him. It is to be hoped that such loathsome foaming will not avail.

The hardest blow received by the Radicals in a long time is a letter from Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in which he goes over to the Johnson party. That is, he advises his friends to vote for men who favor the immediate admission of the Southern States. His letter will do more for the President's policy than a hundred speeches from the President or any member of his Cabinet. It is the saddest fate of a good man on record. The worst of it is that the letter was totally unexpected by Mr. Beecher's friends. He has endorsed the President's course with freedom, among his friends, and it it has been rumored that he would take an early opportunity to say a good word for the Republicans. This letter astounds Copperheads as well as Radicals. The former had no idea that there was so much piety within their ranks. As for the Radicals, they will have to "grin and bear it." They can survive the blow, but can Beecher? It will be very hard for the Republicans in his congregation to swallow his religious teachings after this disgraceful exhibition, for, under the circumstances, I must call it so.

The campaign is very handy in several of the States. Though Mr. Beecher, advises the people to vote for Copperhead candidates in preference to Republicans, they do not seem inclined to do so. There is much excitement in Pennsylvania. A newspaper published in the interior of the State, says:

We are entirely satisfied as to the certainty of General Geary's election. We estimate his majority at rather over than under thirty thousand. Heister Clymer and his principal adherents know perfectly well that Geary will succeed, and that they have no rational hope of defeating him. They are working for the Congressional districts. In two or three of these they think they can succeed with what all they will get from Johnson. But they will not. We shall elect fully as many Republican members of Congress as we did two years ago, and probably two or three more. We had last year clear popular majorities for Hartranft in the districts now represented by Strouse, Denison and Dawson. Our majority for Geary this year will be greater than that for Hartranft and we don't exactly see how the present Incumbents in these three districts are to be succeeded by Democrats. Our people are not going back on the work they have already done, and it is quite apparent that there is but small consolation in store for the politicians who are running the Copperhead-Johnson machine in this State.

The private advices received here from leading Republicans in the State coincide with the above. The tussle comes in the Congressional districts. The President knows that General Geary will be elected and he doesn't care much about it so that he can do well in the election of Congressmen. Even if the Republicans elect and organize the 40th Congress he has strong hopes of his ability to secure the admission of the Southern members for the Republican majority will not be as large as it is now. We shall soon see what we shall see.

It is too soon to comment on the second Philadelphia Convention, but there is a fine prospect from the opening proceedings that it will result in great good to the country. It cannot fail to strengthen the Republicans in the forthcoming elections. It is attended by an imposing array of men from the North and West—all sound Republicans.

ONCE A WEEK.

Poor Maury said a very good thing, when he was presented with three thousand guineas by English secessionists. He said "I do not deserve it." To which just remark the people generally will say, "Amen!"

FROM MONTANA.

We clip from the Montana Post of the 15th ult.

INDIAN ATROCITIES

We are sorry to receive from every arrival, from that reaches Montana by the Powder river route, full confirmation of the rumors concerning Indian depredations that have from time to time found their way into our columns. We have seen the parties that have fought the Indians, and can say emphatically that Gen. Sherman told an untruth and was criminally negligent in the discharge of his duty when he recently telegraphed to Gen. Grant that the Indian troubles on the plains were greatly exaggerated, that no organized party had sustained loss, that no small bands of Indians were roaming about stealing, and that no trouble was apprehended. The Powder river road to Montana is infested by Indians, who are daily committing the most fearful depredations, and for a distance of seventy miles between Powder river and Fort Laramie there is hardly a mile that has not its newly made grave to tell of a recent murder. Between the 22d and 25th days of July, fifty men were killed and several wounded by Indians upon the road mentioned. Included in these were eight men lost on the 24th of July by a party that has just arrived. Parties of only six men have in some cases been compelled to fight against ten times their number of savages, and no one is safe unless traveling in a train of a hundred men or more. The Indians are upon the war path in good earnest, and with their sabres, revolvers and rifles, just obtained from the treaty council at Fort Laramie are determined to close the Powder river route. There are only 250 mounted men at Fort Reno and the troops at Fort Laramie are not strong enough to take the offensive. The Indians know this and hence proceed with the utmost boldness to the stealing of stock by the wholesale, to the burning of trains and to the murder of emigrants. The noble (?) red men engaged in these atrocities are mostly Sioux, but the Arrapahoes and Cheyennes are by no means guiltless. Our space will not permit us to furnish full details to-day, but we give the names of a portion of those murdered. Lieut. Daniels of the 18th United States Volunteers, was pierced by twenty-seven arrows, scalped, his hands and feet cut off and his body horribly mangled. French Pete, an old Indian trader, and four companions were killed within three miles of new Fort Reno. Captain Floyd, formerly of Pittsburg, Pa., and more recently of Leavenworth, Kansas, after being killed, had his head cut off and thrown into a ravine. His horse and $3,000 were taken from him. Among others killed were Thomas Dillon, Captain Barton of Council Bluffs, Zach. Hewsted of Muscatine, Iowa, Wm Desborn of Stoughton, Wis., Hiram Campbell of Jefferson county, N. Y., aged 22 years, the Rev Mr Thomas of Illinois, and son (aged 9 years) and hired man, and a young Canadian aged 19 years, name unknown. Three thousand five hundred dollars were taken from the body of Mr Thomas by the Indians. On the 27th of July the bodies of two unknown men were found in the brush near the Dry Fork of Wind river. These were supposed to be parties from Montana. The farce of treaty-making is played out. The Chiefs get the lion's share of the presents, and in case of hostilities lay all the blame upon their "young men." It is time to enter into negotiations with the young men as well as the "old public functionaries" of the red race, and powder and lead delivered from rifles are the proper presents.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

One of the most frightful accidents that has ever occurred in Montana, happened on Monday last, at Holter's saw mill, situated near this city on Ten Mile creek. A new workman who had just arrived in the Territory from Minnesota, named John Antone Olison, and a Norwegian by birth, was the victim. The ax with which he was at work, casually slipped from his hand and fell into the bottom of a pit, some four feet in depth, which was situated under a circular saw. Although the saw was in rapid motion and Olison was repeatedly cautioned, he descended into the pit for the purpose of getting the ax, not understanding perhaps what was said to him. In raising up, after having secured the ax, his back came in contact with the under edge of the saw, and a horrible incision in his body, 18 inches in length, was thereby made. The scapula was laid bare, eight or nine ribs on the right side were severed, a cut was made into the cavity of the body and the right lung was somewhat injured. Although it was known that it was impossible for him to live everything was done for him that medical science could suggest, the wound being attended to by Dr C. S. Ingersoll of this city. The unfortunate man died shortly after midnight on Tuesday morning, or over fourteen hours after the accident.

ACCIDENT AND DEATH.

On the 30th ult., while Henry Long was at work upon the roof of an addition to the Lafayette Brewery on Main street, a joist and rafter gave way and Long fell some seven feet, striking first upon his spine and afterwards upon his head. By the fall all that portion of his body below the waist was paralyzed, and all medical aid was unavailing. On Monday last he died, having been delirious for several days previous to his death. His funeral took place on Tuesday.

THE CAPTURED PARTY

The three men captured and murdered by Indians while descending the Missouri in a small boat, were Peter H. Greeks, Henry Robins and —— Wooden. All had worked on German Flat, Alder gulch. Mr Robins leaves a family in Maine. Mr. Wooden, at one time kept a store in Nevada, N. T., and leaves a married daughter in Minnesota.

ROCKY BAR.—E. S. McLaughlin made us a call yesterday. This gentleman informs us that but little is doing at mining in Alturas county, the Idaho company are taking out ore and occasionally set their mill in motion. Work is progressing on the Ada Elmore ledge, a large quantity of ore is stacked up ready for crushing, which will yield from $60 to $100 to the ton.

A great error has been made by parties having charge of affairs for Eastern capitalists in this camp. In the first place their estimations of the expenses of erecting machinery and opening mines in Idaho has been too small by one half. When their freights, labor, supplies and other expenses are paid their ready capital is nearly, if not entirely exhausted, hence all this capital necessarily remains idle until more can be procured from the East to operate with in the mines. The actual and necessary expenses should be more carefully calculated in the future by agents and superintendents. For instance—a miner demands from $5 to $6 per diem—where a harvest hand in the Eastern States receives but seventy five cents or one dollar. Board in the mines rates from $12 to $24 per week, freights from $8 to $40 per 100 pounds, according to the season of the year and the condition of the roads, when in the States, for the same distance, only one and one half dollars per 100 lbs would be demanded.

Let no more enterprises hang fire—supply your agents with the necessary funds to complete their mission, and your capital invested will respond with a bountiful interest.—Idaho Times.

Advices from Pennsylvania inform us that the strength of the loyal Geary—anti Johnson—organization, known as the "Boys in Blue," is over 75,000.

The Daily Oregonian.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 3, 1866.

The Law Limiting the Capital Stock of Corporations.

Chapter VIII., Section 19, of the General Laws of Oregon provides that the capital stock of any corporation established under the laws of this State, except corporations formed for the purpose of making and constructing railroads, shall never exceed the sum of two millions of dollars, and any corporation that shall violate this provision shall forfeit its corporate rights.

It would seem that a change in this law is necessary to allow capitalists to carry forward the great enterprises which the growing condition of the State is now making possible of achievement. For example, Oregon hopes soon to have enough vessels of her own to do the principal part of the carrying between Portland and San Francisco. A beginning has already been made in this direction. Now four or five vessels like the steamship Oregonian, just built for this trade, would be worth the whole sum which the law allows as the utmost limit of the capital stock of a corporation in this State. Oregon can therefore have no considerable amount of shipping while this law stands as it is now; for capitalists cannot associate for this, or any other project of the kind, which requires a great deal of money to make it a success.

Population is increasing; trade is growing, and an order of things which would have been very well a few years ago, will not serve much longer. Narrow ideas of the future of the State must give way to broader views. We are not now the same community we were ten years ago; and the next ten years will witness a still greater change.

We venture to suggest to the Legislature the propriety of amending the law in the place we have designated, convinced of the real importance of the change.

"BREAD AND BUTTER" MEN BOISTEROUS.—The State Journal, in the course of an article on the political situation, thus speaks of the deplorable plight into which the "bread and butter" brigade have fallen:

> That little band of political pirates—that insignificant, contemptible clique of lying, thieving, treacherous scoundrels, who never make pledges to any men or set of men only to violate them, who make treachery and deception a profession, and live on the fruits of bribery or what they can manipulate from the Government of its dusky wards, are beginning to realize that the "bread and butter" which they sold themselves for this time, cannot be as lasting as they at first anticipated. The prospect of having their regular rations of "bread and butter" or siwash "muck-a-muck" cut off by the "Radicals," who are as sure to elect the next President as the sun rises, may have a wonderful effect on these fellows yet, and we should not be the least surprised to again hear them harping about their devotion to the Union and the "Union party," and declaring that they are "fully determined to crush the Lane Democracy."

DEMOCRATIC THREATS.—The Chicago Times of September 3d contains a long leader urging mob violence upon all who do not join in its laudations of Johnson, and the article closes with this malignant threat:

> We can state that the President will be protected in whatever he may choose to say at the Board of Trade Hall or elsewhere, and we give this warning: that the friends of the President will hold possession of the city of Chicago during his tarry here.

This is pretty loud talk for a miserable minority, whose associates have just been subjugated in the South.

Champ Ferguson, during the war, was perhaps the most merciless and ferocious of all the rebel guerrillas. He finally suffered death by the halter for his crimes. His brother, J. B. Ferguson, who has ever been a rebel, and who was less notorious through the war, only because less able to do harm than the one who perished on the gallows, is now the Secretary of the Johnson Club at Washington. Had not Champ Ferguson been hanged, he would now be one of the most ardent of the President's supporters.

NOT HARD TO PLEASE.—An Oregon Copperjohnson organ, declared just before the election of a Senator, that it would be satisfied with any "conservative" man—either Nesmith, Smith or Kelly. Easy to please to be sure. This is the fellow, be it remembered, who publishes a Union paper, and who last spring opposed the election of Kelly for Governor. Yet he now wishes Kelly were Senator. These Copperjohnsons are a rare set of turncoats and changelings.

In his speech at New York, A. Johnson said: "If I have pardoned many, it was because I thought it was for the best interests of the country, having found them anxious to be pardoned." Our Governors might empty our penitentiaries on the same principle. It would be safe to guess that there is not a convict in them all who is not "anxious to be pardoned."

The reason why the South so strongly opposes the Constitutional Amendment, is that thirty seats in Congress and thirty electoral votes are at stake. This is just the amount of political power the South now unjustly has over the North. It is bad enough to grant that rebels are as good as loyal men, without insisting that they are far better.

The grading of the Central Pacific Railroad, when it reaches the summit of the Sierras in California, will be 7,042 feet above the level of the ocean. This is 815 feet higher than the summit of Mount Washington, the highest land in New England.

Lawrence, Massachusetts, has a population of 16,000 persons. But one death occurred in that city during the month of August. It is doubtful whether any other town in the world, with a like population, can show such a record.

The General Land Office publishes statistics showing that the Western States and Territories are still attracting the bulk of the emigration from the Atlantic States and Europe.

Gen. Sherman was at Denver, Colorado, on the 12th of September. Sherman is the most industrious traveler in the world. In peace or war, he is the same energetic, tireless man.

During the week ending with Saturday, Sept. 22d, King, Webb & Co. and Blake & Co. received for assay at Silver City, Owyhee, 41,463 ounces of bullion.

In almost every one of his harangues the President endeavors to comfort his hearers with the remark: "My race is nearly run."

The stages between Walla Walla and Wallula on the downward trips are fairly loaded down with passengers. So says the Statesman.

Mayor Monroe, the Nana Sahib of New Orleans, is in full sway again. Johnson has reconstructed him.

A CURIOUS FACT ABOUT QUARTZ—INTERSECTION OF LEDGES.—The Nevada Gazette of September 24th, says:

> In the course of the trial of the case of Sanguinetti vs. Keeny, in the District Court, some interesting testimony was given by mining experts in regard to quartz ledges intersecting and crossing each other. Several of the witnesses were from Grass Valley, where numerous north and south as well as east and west ledges have been worked, but none of them had ever known an instance in which two ledges crossed each other and continued on their course. William Watt stated, however, that many years ago (in 1855, we believe) he knew an instance in which one ledge came bluff up against another on which a tunnel was being run, and he had often regretted that he had not examined it more closely. This was before any attention had been given to the subject, and it is possible that instead of two ledges intersecting, that the rock in one had been misplaced by some convulsion, or what at the time was supposed to be a ledge, was merely a spur putting off at nearly a right angle. It is certainly very seldom that ledges cross each other, although there are many localities like Grass Valley, where they run in every direction. The most of the ledges in the vicinity of Nevada run nearly north and south, although there are a few that have an east and west course.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 2.

Santa Anna Again.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The Herald says Santa Anna is now negotiating a loan of 5,000,000 dollars for the purpose of carrying out his plans of reconstruction in Mexico and is assured of success in negotiating the same in a few days. A number of ex-Federal officers called on him yesterday to offer their services in the new campaign.

It is believed by those high in authority in Canada, that Secretary Seward has used his diplomacy to bring about a league between Santa Anna and the Fenians.

From Chile.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The Herald's South American correspondent says, the idea of making peace with Spain is not believed in for a moment among the Chileans. They are anxious to carry the war into the enemy's country and demand that their navy shall appear before Cadiz. The Secretary of Foreign Affairs remarked at a dinner during the last week of August, that Chile would ever regard Spain in the light of a natural enemy. It is very doubtful if any agent would be received who might come from Spain to propose terms of peace. Defensive operations in the vicinity of Valparaiso are still being made. The three steamers purchased here by Mataro are being fitted out as ships of war.

Tucker, the ex-rebel who was appointed Admiral of the Peruvian navy, has been installed Commander-in-Chief of the allied squadron. Montero, the Admiral who mutinied on account of Tucker's appointment, was still in confinement with his officers.

Gen. Dix Gets an Office.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Gen. Dix took possession of the naval office this morning, and the deputies under Moses Odell were sworn to remain in their places.

Money Matters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The Post's money article says there is abundance of speculation. Stocks opened buoyant, but closed with a drooping tendency. Government stocks are quiet; foreign exchange firm.

The Commercial's money article says the upward movement in stocks appears to be reaching its climax. The railroad list shows great strength. The money market retains the aspect that has prevailed of late, and the banks do not show quite so much anxiety to lend, which may be attributed to a slight increase in the demand from Cincinnati and Chicago for currency. Foreign exchange opens quiet, while there is a very light supply of bills. There is also an unexpectedly light demand.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—It is asserted that Maximilian sent an order countermanding the evacuation of Sonora, but the French Admiral having embarked all of his troops he refused to disembark them.

Jarvis B. Coffin and John Rudman—firm of Coffin & Rudman, lumber merchants—filed their petition in insolvency to-day. Coffin's schedule shows losses as follows: By mining stocks, $20,000; interest, $2,113 50; rent and other expenses, $16,455; personal and family expenses, $14,345; by destruction of the brig Charlotte Frances, $7,050; bad debts, $22,262 22. Rudman's schedule shows losses of $1,259 by mining stocks, while the balance of his affairs correspond with those of his partner. Their list of creditors is about ten feet long; in each case their liabilities amounting in aggregate to about $12,500 each. Their assets consist of $2,704 of bad debts, the cash value of which is $1,081 28 and certain promissory notes of the value of $18,645, all of which have been assigned to Tallant & Co. as collateral security for the payment of certain other notes held by them and endorsed by petitioners.

The certificate of incorporation of the San Francisco Fuel Company has been filed in the county court.

The first section of the Western Pacific Railroad, extending from San Jose Vallejo Canyon above Vallejo's Mill, a distance of twenty miles, was inaugurated to-day.

Capt. Frederick Mears, 9th U. S. Infantry, now stationed at Camp McGarry, Nevada, has been promoted Major by brevet for faithful services during the late war.

Judge Dwinnells to-day granted Dorotha Opperman a divorce from her husband, Christian Opperman, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

Gen. R. C. Drum, A. A. G., is relieved from duty in the Division of the Pacific and ordered by the Secretary of War to report to Maj.-Gen. Meade at Philadelphia.

Joshua Graves, the 2d engineer of the steamer Julia, died at the city hospital last evening.

The ship Imperial, which arrived from Kodiac to-day with ice to the American Russian Commercial Co., reports a terrific shock of an earthquake on the 5th of September, at 4 o'clock P. M. Captain Hutching, of the Imperial, says three houses were shaken down, and nearly all the chimneys in the town. The violent shock lasted 40 seconds. The sensation on ship board was terrifying, seeming as though the ship was going at railway speed over the rocks, while articles were shaken down which had not been disturbed by the most violent gales. Other slight shocks were felt at intervals for forty-eight hours. In some of the southern parts of the island huge rocks were torn from their places and came tumbling down the mountain sides. No lives were lost.

Private telegrams just received from New York state that cotton has advanced 15c per pound—equal to 40c. Domestics were 10 per cent. higher. Prints, bleached and brown cottons, very scarce. From the tenor of the dispatches, we judge that the market is very much excited. The cause for it is unknown, and in the absence of any better reason, it is supposed that the cotton crop will not turn out so well as has been expected.

The Markets.

Flour—Export demand is quiet. The vessels on the berth for China have secured their cargoes. During the past month we have exported 20,281½ bbls, valued at $401,105. Of this amount, China took 25,341¼ bbls. superfine hf sacks, $4 75@4 87½; qr sacks, $4 87½@5; extra hf sacks, $5 12½@5 25; qr sacks, $5 37½@5 50.

Wheat—The market is temporarily firm at $1 50; choice samples will bring $1 52½ and extra choice $1 65.

Barley—New feed, 80c; choice do. 87½; new brewing, 90c; old brewing $1.

Oats—Fair, $1 45; good $1 50 per 100lbs.

Potatoes—Selling freely at 70@75c for good Mission, and 90@91 per 100 lbs for Peachblow.

Money Market.

The price of gold in New York yesterday was 145⅝. Telegrams received at 11 o'clock A. M. to-day, quote gold at 145⅞; Sterling, 108¼ firm; Legal tenders are 70¾ buying @71¼ selling.

Shipping.

Arrived Oct. 2—British ship Imperial, 15 days from Kodiac; ice.

Sailed.—Bark W. A. Banks, for Puget Sound; ship Caroline Reed, for Puget Sound.

FROM IDAHO.

INDIAN NEWS.

We clip from the Owyhee Avalanche of the 22d September:

Major Walker, commanding the Post at Camp C. F. Smith, gave us a call on his way to Boise on Thursday. He visits this place and Boise for the purpose of procuring material, supplies, &c., necessary at Camp. On Saturday last he destroyed an Indian camp and a large quantity of provisions at the head of Trout creek, in the direction of Queen river from his camp. This will oblige Mr. Indian to hunt a different locality for his winter quarters, as he cannot replace the destroyed stores in the neighborhood of his troublesome haunts. Major says he will soon have a full company of cavalry and then he will be enabled to punish Lo for past depredations. He says there is no trouble to find Indians, but his command has been composed of poorly mounted infantry, and not enough of them for post and field duty. Major is earnestly at work and will leave no effort in his power undone to protect the settlers and travel and make peaceable Indians in the only certain way—killing them. His recent promotion from that of Captain to Major is a deserved tribute to him as an officer and man.

RUTTER & JOHNSON.

Two and one-half tons of ore from the north extension of this ledge, worked in the Enterprise Arrastra, gave over $60 per ton. The ore was taken from the dump as it came from the shaft, without being selected, and was somewhat mixed with talc and decomposed granite. The ledge is two feet and widening. The owners are elated. Ore from the discovery is now being worked in a horse-arastra in Purdy Gulch. All parties interested agree that it promises a larger yield than the extension, and an assay of the latter by Blake & Co., gives per ton: silver, $64 75; gold, $155 65; total, $220 40. Messrs. Hurst, Agnew & Co. own this extension.

INCORPORATED.

Last week we noticed the organization of the Morning Star & Oro Fino G. & S. M. Co. At a meeting on the 17th the company incorporated with the same officers, except that of Thos. Cole, Jr., and A. Goodman who were chosen Trustees instead of Geo. W. Tew and A. J. Sands, as named in connection with the organization. Mark A. King was elected Treasurer. The corporate name of the company is "Oro Fino and Morning Star Mining Co." The capital stock is $250,000; shares $50 each, therefore 5,000 shares.

PRIZE FIGHT.

September 18th James Dwyer and Patsey Foy entered into articles of agreement to have a "fair stand up fight" for $500 a side, to take place on the 30th ult., and to come off not to exceed five miles from Silver. Consideration, $500 a side and ring money.

BULLION.

Took a look in King, Webb & Co's bank on Wednesday, and saw thirty-two huge silver bricks finished up in neat style. The point to the item is that they are worth fifty thousand dollars, and were not considered much of a pile either.

We find the following in the Boise Statesman of the 25th ult.:

YUBA DISTRICT.

The discovery of extremely rich ore in the course of the last few months in several different lodes, is now directing much attention to this new mining camp. Too much credit cannot be accorded to those who first undertook the development of those almost inaccessible mines, by the introduction of machinery, and we hope and believe that their success will be equal to their most ardent expectations.

About one year ago Capt. Wm. T. Libby, Agent and Superintendent of the Northern Mining Company, first had his attention called to this camp, and upon a tour of examination became so favorably impressed, that he at once set about opening a road, hoping to get his machinery—then en route across the plains, over the almost impassable mountains lying between Rocky Bar and Yuba, before the winter storms came on. In this, he was disappointed but succeeded—though at great expense—in getting through a winter's supplies for his employees, and commenced the development of the mines. In the month of June last, Capt. Libby was suddenly called home and the entire enterprise devolved upon our old friend M. C. Brown, under whose energetic management roads have been built—the machinery taken safely to its intended destination, and a mill speedily constructed which is now ready, really, to commence crushing the golden ore.

Capt. Befreas, soon followed with another mill, that is now in course of construction, and we are told others are soon to follow in quick succession.

As Mr. Brown was the first to enter the camp with machinery, he has had the advantage of selecting from the best mines, but if half is true that is told of the richness and extent of these Yuba gold and silver mines, there is enough for all who have the courage to undertake the development.

FROM THE SOUTH.

Major Walker broke up and destroyed an Indian camp at the head of Trout creek, on the Chico road, a week ago last Saturday. A considerable amount of provisions was found and destroyed. He could not follow them with infantry, so the Indians escaped minus their stores and all camp equipage, even their bows and arrows.

One of Capt. Collins' men was shot and killed by Indians near his camp, and another wounded about two weeks ago. After making the little raid the devils rode off on fleet Cayuses, leaving the infantry powerless to follow them.

FOR RESERVATION.

Judge Hough, on his visit North, has in view the selecting a proper place for an Indian Reservation. The upper valley of the Payette is thought to be as favorable a location as any that offers at the present time. The valley is from sixty to eighty miles long by some twenty wide, and a portion of it well adapted to agriculture.

CROUP!

A FEARFUL RESPONSIBILITY RESTS UPON THOSE CHARGED WITH THE CARE OF CHILDREN. A CARELESS NEGLECT IN THE TIMELY USE OF A WELL-KNOWN, SAFE AND CERTAIN REMEDY FOR THAT MOST COMMON AND DANGEROUS COMPLAINT CALLED CROUP, SHOULD SUBJECT THE PARTY TO THE SEVEREST CENSURE, WHEN IT IS WELL KNOWN THAT A BOTTLE OF NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP WOULD HAVE WARDED OFF THE ATTACK. MOTHERS AND NURSES, KEEP IT BY YOUR BEDSIDE, AND USE IT WITHOUT FEAR, UPON THE FIRST SYMPTOM, AND WITH A CERTAINTY OF IMMEDIATE RELIEF! NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP IS CONFIDENTLY RECOMMENDED AS A SURE CURE FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, AND ALL PULMONARY COMPLAINTS. AN OUTRAGE.—We hear of a matter to which we wish to call the particular attention of the community as being a matter in which all are vitally interested. At 8 o'clock one evening last week a young lady belonging to one of the most respectable families in our city found it necessary to come down town for the purpose of procuring medicine for one of the family who was sick. In passing down the street near the Academy she was accosted by a man who laid his hand upon her and asked her to stop, as he wished to speak with her. The manner of the ruffian alarmed the young lady, who broke from him and ran back upon the street closely pursued by the villain, who would soon have overtaken her had she not, seeing a light in a house near by, burst open the door and rushed into the room and asked for protection. The gentleman immediately proffered his assistance and said he would accompany her home. Accordingly they started, and in passing down Park street, between Clay and Columbia, they saw the man standing in the bushes near the road. He did not attempt to stop them, but allowed them to pass without molestation. On reaching the residence of the young lady the gentleman started to return home and thinking from the manner of the ruffian, that he might be awaiting his return, he took another street in order to avoid him. He had but left the vicinity of the house before the fellow came upon him and addressed him with oaths and curses, telling him that if ever he interfered with him again, he would put a ball through the top of his head. The gentleman was well armed, and not being at all scared, the fellow thought it prudent to decamp. It is certainly to be deeply regretted that he did not then and there get his final quietus. Society would be much improved if our next census showed one man missing. Nothing but the most summary chastisement is a fit remedy for such outrages upon the laws of society. We are in favor of his being now hunted up and made to answer for it. The scoundrel has since been seen and recognized. We wish [illegible] to him and all his kind.

POLICE COURT.—Alex Campbell appeared before his Honor yesterday morning charged by Chas Cannovan with assault and battery. The circumstances of the case as shown in the evidence were these: On the evening of the 28th ult. a ball was given at Oro Fino Hall by the Lafayette Guards, of which company Mr Campbell is a member. Mr C was also one of the floor managers of the ball. At a late hour Cannovan came into the hall, apparently under the influence of bad whisky, and was stopped at the head of the stairs, insisted upon his right to a place in the ball-room. Mr Campbell was called upon to settle the dispute, and in view of the fact that Cannovan had no right in the room—was drunk and [illegible] character, politely insisted upon showing him down stairs. Mr Campbell kindly supported Mr Cannovan's faltering steps and on reaching the head of the stairs, he with culpable negligence loosed his hold, while Cannovan tumbled down the steps. With these facts before him, his Honor discharged Campbell and reprimanded Cannovan.

J H. Andrews was arrested upon the charge of assault and battery upon A. W. Brest. The case was discharged. J. H. Andrews and Mrs Andrews were arrested upon complaint of A. W Brest and charged with disorderly conduct, in taking complainant out of their house. The case was dismissed.

A NUISANCE.—We call the attention of the proper officers to the fellows who cry about the streets under the nom de plume of runners at each arrival of the river boats in these days. These individuals fill the ears of decent citizens with the vilest language in the slang vocabulary. We think it is hardly necessary for stable-keepers to send forth individuals of the kind here indicated. At the same time the Marshal will no doubt arrest them in the future, if the public ears are again outraged as they were yesterday evening.

INDIANS VS INDIANS.—Gen Steele and Gov Woods yesterday held a consultation in this city on the subject of the Indian troubles in Eastern Oregon. It is understood that the General will immediately raise and put in the field [illegible] of 100 Indians authorized by Congress for the State to be officered by competent men and to go without delay into the hostile country. Gov Woods has been very [illegible] in this matter and has shown a spirit [illegible] for the relief of the people of the [illegible] of the State, which is highly commendable.

FINE FURS.—We were shown yesterday, by Mr Kilborn, a lot of the finest furs that have ever been brought to this market. Among the lot are five large capes, best Hudson Bay sable, valued at about $300 each. Also, [illegible] collars and cuffs. We would call the attention of ladies to these valuable furs. They are the best ever offered in this market. They are genuine sable and mink, and made up in the best and latest styles. They will be sold at [illegible] on Friday next. A full attendance [illegible].

COUNTY COURT.—In county court on Monday last, in the matter of the estate of Robert Thompson, deceased, the sale of certain real estate heretofore made was set aside and a re-sale ordered to be made. In the matter of the estate of Amory Holbrook, deceased, Wm. Strong was appointed administrator. Valuation of property estimated at $25,000. On yesterday, in the matter of the case of [illegible] Wetterer against M Graeser, the suit was [illegible] the cost of the plaintiff.

[illegible].—The boys had their fire engine out for [illegible] on Stark street. Their engine as usual attracted a large crowd, and did splendid work. This engine is rapidly growing in favor. The work done by it at the late fire at Harlow & Stitzel's mill, won for it a host of friends, both in the department and among the [illegible]. Many who opposed its introduction, now admit their error and say it is just the thing.

PEW SALE.—The meeting at the Presbyterian Church [illegible] at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of letting the pews for the ensuing year, was sparsely attended. Many keep the same pews, dating their year back to June; others were sold, is laying quite a premium. The bidding was quite lively for some choice seats.

[illegible].—Mr John P Nichols, who was injured in unloading the steamer Montana on the 1st instant takes this method of returning his heartfelt thanks to the officers and crew of the Montana for their liberal donation for his benefit after receiving his injury.

THE ARENA.—The minstrels, last night, had a good house. A large number of ladies were present. Tom LaFont's whistling and imitations are inimitable and his [illegible] is first rate. To night they give their last [illegible].

[illegible].—In yesterday's account of the selling of the [illegible], by a mistake of the compositor we are made to say, "the Oregonian brings 400 tons of coal," instead of 1,400 tons.

IMMIGRANTS.—We noticed upon the arrival of the Hunt last [illegible] a number of emigrants from Iowa. Their teams were mules and horses, and were in splendid condition. They report many more coming.

THE FIDELITER.—The steamer Fideliter sailed from Victoria for this port [illegible] day at 8 o'clock

TO SAIL.—The steamer Oriflamme sails to-day at 11 o'clock A. M., and the Montana at 1 P M

A good story is told of Gen Greenville M Dodge, the Union candidate in Mr. Kasson's district, Iowa. When he was in command at Vicksburg he enforced strictly the regulations in regard to cotton. The speculators tried his mettle by the usual appliances—an offer of $50,000 in gold, then $100,000, $150 000, $200,000. He then sent a dispatch to Washington asking to be removed from [illegible]. He said he had been offered $200,000 to disobey orders, which was so near his price that he was afraid that the next offer would bring him.

[illegible] SPIRIT.—In the course of his speech at Gold Hill, and alluding to the President's implied threat of Dictatorship, Thomas Fitch said: "He proclaimed himself Dictator! Why the [illegible]! He would be impeached and hung in a hollow-square, before the ink had dried on his proclamation."

THE ART AMONG THE ANCIENTS.—Researches among the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum have led some writers to think that the inhabitants of those ruined cities knew something of PHOTOGRAPHY. Whether this is so or not the most brilliant results are being brought out of the art at the present day. At the GALLERY of ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, 80 First street, may be seen some exquisite gems in the PICTURE line that are unapproachable as works of art. We would advise those who wish to adorn their parlors and albums in a tasteful manner, to give them a call.

THE CONTEST FOR U. S. SENATOR at Salem does not in the least interfere with the rapid sale of those FINE BEAVER and all other kinds of FINE BUSINESS AND BLACK SUITS at such low figures by KOHN & [illegible] at the ST LOUIS STORE, NO 111 FRONT STREET. They are CONSTANTLY RECEIVING GOODS from their House in New York, and are thus enabled to keep on hand the LATEST STYLES and at PRICES THAT DEFY COMPETITION.

The Graefenberg Company's Uterine CATHOLICON does not contain one particle of calomel or [illegible] and cases of Female Complaints which require other treatment than the Catholicon are extremely rare. It should be used in all cases of Deranged Monthly Periods, Weakness, Irregular Appetite, Nervousness, [illegible], Disturbed Sleep, Acid Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion and Pains and Debilities connected with the Uterine Organs.

THE UTERINE CATHOLICON

Is a most successful remedy for Gravel and all affections of the Kidneys and Bladder while in the troublesome symptoms attending Pregnancy, the benefits of the Catholicon are most remarkable. It is a perfect restorer of the [illegible] and general health from budding womanhood to the turn of life, and those patients who have used the GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S UTERINE CATHOLICON find difficulty in expressing their thankfulness for the beneficial effects of this wonderful medicine.

Stamping Canned Meats, Etc

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I desire, through the columns of your paper to call the attention of merchants and traders to the late law in reference to Stamping Canned Meats etc, as follows:

For and upon every can, bottle or other single package containing meats, fish, shell fish, fruits, vegetables, sauces, syrups, prepared mustards, jams or jellies contained therein and packed or sealed, made, prepared and sold or offered for sale or removed for consumption in the United States on and after the first day of October, 1866 when such can, bottle or other single package with its contents shall not exceed two pounds in weight, the sum of one cent.

When such can, bottle or other single package with its contents shall exceed two pounds in weight, for every additional pound or fractional part thereof, one cent.

Section 210 provides that imported articles except playing cards, lucifer or friction matches, cigar lights and wax tapers may be sold in original and unbroken packages without subjecting the seller to penalty on account of the want of the proper stamp.

It is clear therefore that all packages above referred to containing articles of domestic manufacture must be stamped before being offered for sale either singly or in packages.

The penalty for the violation of this law is fifty dollars for every omission to affix such stamp.

M. CRAWFORD
Collector Dist. Oregon
PORTLAND October 2 1866.

DISCOVERY OF NEW MINES.—For several weeks back reports have been rife of the discovery of new and rich diggings on the head waters on the Palouse, distance from Walla Walla about 150 miles. A party of prospectors—among them David Weston, of Walla Walla—visited that locality early in the spring, and although they obtained unmistakable signs of gold, owing to high water and other causes they were unable to work to advantage. A portion of the party returned to Walla Walla, whilst others remained and continued to prospect the country, and have at length succeeded in finding rich placer mines. The diggings as described to us, are on a creek, a tributary of the Palouse, and are reported to pay from $20 to $30 to the hand, working with few or no conveniences. The news of this discovery caused intense excitement at Lewiston. Instantly there was a general stampede which carried off nearly the whole population. Merchants, and idlers, working men and bummers, all struck a bee line for the new diggings, and left the town at the confluence of the Snake and Clearwater to primal solitude. Our own people being less excitable took the matter more coolly, but notwithstanding our staid character the news was eagerly caught up and forthwith our idle and unemployed men began to move in the direction of Palouse. The tide still continues to set that way, and should it continue promises to carry off our loose population. The new mines are reported to be about 25 miles to the right of the Coeur d'Alene road, and can be reached by wagons with the greatest ease. With regard to the character and extent of the mines, our information is meagre and confined exclusively to hurried letters from parties on the ground, who write to their friends to "come up immediately!" One thing, however, is certain—new and rich mines have been discovered; their extent and character is yet to be ascertained.—Walla Walla Statesman

COLVILLE MAIL.—At the last letting A J Ripson put in a bid to carry the Colville mail at $1,000 per annum and was awarded the contract. Ripson made no effort to comply with the terms of his agreement with the Department, and at the expiration of the previous contract Postmaster Johnson made a temporary arrangement with Capt Shulock to continue the service at a rate not to exceed $7 000. Under this arrangement the mail has been carried for the last three months. A few days since instructions were received from Washington directing that the service be discontinued unless it can be had at a figure not to exceed Ripson's bid. The schedule calls for a weekly mail, and we are assured by parties competent to judge, that the service cannot be rendered for $1,000 in greenbacks without positive loss to the contractor. The Mullan contract under which the mail heretofore been carried called for $7 000, and even at this figure the business has barely paid. To discontinue the service entirely will work great inconvenience to the settlers on the Upper Columbia, who will thus be denied all postal facilities and shut out from all communication with the outer world. These settlements are constantly growing in importance, and instead of restricting their means of communication a wise policy suggests their extension. This is a matter that merits the attention of our Delegate in Congress, and as such we invoke for it his earliest consideration.—Walla Walla Statesman

Pacific University

Prof G H Collier, Professor of Mathematics for ten years in Wheaton College, Illinois, arrived with his family on the Oriflamme, Oct. 1st and proceeded on the 2d to Forest Grove to assume the Chair of Natural Science in the College, to which he had been invited by the trustees, through President Marsh.

The number of Students is increasing, and he will be welcomed to share in the labors and prosperity of the Institution and of our State, to which he has come to devote his life. Good progress is made by President Marsh in the endowment fund.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be in the possession of everybody in the mining regions. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite palatable even as a beverage, it is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery and the pervading fevers consequent upon exposure the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective. No man should enter upon the exposed life of a miner without being provided with Hostetter's preventive of stomach disease, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation fail to have recourse to the Bitters. Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere. sep20 HODGE & CALEF 97 Front St

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.
READ AND REFLECT,

Make sure of Health. But how? you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task
Strengthen the Stomach and sustain
The Nerves the servants of the brain
The Liver keep in active play
And regulate from day to day
Each organ aid on Nature's plan
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care with railroad time,
The system at once and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits too
How you inquire can this be done?
This Victory over Disease be won?
Hostetter's Bitters, we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SAFEGUARD PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits invigorating the constitution and prolonging life, no medical preparation either of the past or the present time has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Against the vapors foul prepare
That fever taint the heavy air
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply
Nature you must assist—or die—
For who debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SURE ANTIDOTE

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be fore-armed with

Dyspepsia's pangs that rack and grind
The body and depress the mind
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints those tedious ills,
Never conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury,
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer day by day;
Nervous prostration mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
Hostetter's Bitters—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

And tillers of wet, marshy ground,
To feeble wives of fragile mold
To young and middle-aged and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop yet know not what they ail,

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 635 AND 647 FRONT ST
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts
The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice

The Poor Scholar.

BY BARRY CORNWALL.

Death, old fellow! Have we then
 Come at last so near each other!
Well: shake hands, and be to me
 A quiet friend and faithful brother.

All those merry days are gone;
 Gone with cash and health, old fellow!
When I read long days and nights,
 And sometimes (with a friend) got mellow.

Newton! Euclid! fine old ghosts!
 Noble books of old Greek learning!
Ah! ye left huge aches behind—
 Head and heart and brain all burning.

How I toiled! For one new fled
 I wore down the midnight taper,
Laboring—dreaming—till one day
 I woke and found my life—a vapor.

Yet I hoped (ah! laugh not now)
 For wealth and health and fame—the babble!
So I climbed up Wisdom's steps,
 And got a fall, boy, for my trouble.

Now all's over; no one helped,
 No one cheered my strong endeavor;
So I sank, and called on thee!
 Thou wilt be my friend forever.

Crossing the Atlantic in a Lifeboat.

Everybody has heard about the "three wise men of Gotham who went to sea in a bowl," but the story of the two old matelots who, starting from the same port in a cockle-shell of a vessel, succeeded in crossing the broad Atlantic, is still to be told. The Lilliputian ship—variously called the "Yankee Doodle," "Red, White and Blue," and "Ingersoll"—that sailed from the harbor of New York on the 9th of July, and arrived in London on the 16th of August, and reported all hands and the cook in prime condition, in thirty-eight days, or in about the same period of time required by first-class sailing vessels of from 1,000 to 2,000 tons in making the same passage under ordinary circumstances. The announcement of the safe arrival of the miniature craft at Hastings, on the Thames, was received in New York by the Atlantic cable, to the great relief of the anxious friends of Captain Hudson and his companions, as well as the gratification of the public generally and of some of those who had bets pending on the success of the enterprise. A New York journal makes some appropriate remarks upon the successful performance of the little ship:

"The miniature craft was spoken on the 10th and 11th of July, well under way; but, since then, no tidings have have been received of her, until the cable told that she was safe on the other side, and "all well." The trip of the Lilliput vessel is an affair of not inconsiderable importance. It may fairly and contrastively complement the passage of the Great Eastern. One is so large as to have been at first esteemed unmanageable; the other is so small as to have been from the start declared not to be able to live in any rough sea. Success has dispelled the skepticism and apprehension that each gave rise to. The first is massivity made nautically available; the second is dwarfish symmetry rendered demonstratedly seaworthy. The one depends upon power and bigness; the other, on staunch minuteness and agility. The one is propelled by five monstrous engines and thirty-two sails of extraordinary extent; the latter flies by the wind, has no steam, and stretches out but sixteen airy, tiny wings, that woo the breezes, and are the whole motive power."

THE LEVIATHAN AND THE MINNOW COMPARED.

An examination of the size and constructive difference between the ship that is larger than Noah's ark and the vessel that barely equals in extent the poetized boat of the Lady of the Lake, will exhibit some very suggestive and instructive points, that may be figured from what follows:

Great Eastern—22,500 tonnage, 680 feet length, 83 feet breadth, 60 feet depth; length of principal saloon, 400 feet; storage capacity, 19,000 pounds; power of engines, 2,600 horse-power; diameter of cylinder, 76 inches; draft of water, 20 feet; ordinary accommodations, 4,000 persons; greatest accommodations, 10,000 persons; highest rate of speed, 15 knots; first passage, 14 days; crew, 300; total original cost, $5,000,000; height of saloons, 40 feet, width of cable, 26 inches; weight of main anchor, 2,500 pounds.

Red, White and Blue—2½ tonnage, 23 feet length, 5½ feet breadth, 12 feet depth; length of principal saloon, 5½ feet; storage capacity, 1,250 pounds; power of propulsion, 2 small children; diameter of masts, 3½ inches; draft of water, 15 inches; ordinary accommodations, 2 men (or 1 woman) and 1 small dog; greatest accommodations, 3 men (or 1½ women) and a moderate dog; highest rate of speed; 10 knots; first passage, 38 days; crew, 2 men and 1 dog; total cost $1,600; height of saloon, 13 inches; width of cable, 2 of an inch; weight of anchor, 25 pounds.

PERILOUS ATTEMPTS IN SMALL CRAFTS.

The little Vision will be remembered. It was simply a sixteen-feet yawl boat, converted into a ship, or rather a hermaphrodite brig four feet ten inches in width, and two feet nine inches deep. She carried fifty yards of canvas, and her masts were nineteen feet high. Built of wood, she was launched by her owner, builder, and attempted navigator, John Donovan, on the 12th of June, 1864, and started three days after, ostensibly for Europe. On the 5th of July the Vision put into Boston, in a leaky condition, but was repaired and started on her further way. The morning of the 20th of July, the incoming steamer spoke the Vision, doing well, in latitude 45:10, longitude 53 west; supplied her with provisions and water, when she again continued on her voyage. Since that date till now nothing has been certainly heard of the little craft, and it is believed that she has inevitably gone to the bottom. Much interest was felt in her success, and for a long time the public on both sides of the water refused to believe her perished. Apocryphal stories have been started now and then, that she turned up, and every port from Spitzbergen to Terra del Fuego, has its tradition of the fate of the Vision. But it remains now settled beyond a reasonable doubt that Davy Jones has adopted the miniature vessel as his favorite pleasure yacht below, unless the last circulated story be true, which is unlikely, and whose purport, is, that the Captain put into a Nova Scotia port, stayed there incognito, broke up his boat, gave by his absence a reasonable supposition for his death, and thus, having allowed his wife time to collect a fat insurance policy, returned to New York to enjoy the proceeds. The report don't hold water. No more does the one that the Vision ran the blockade then enforced off Charleston, and smuggled in a grist of quinine to the agued rebels. The imaginative souls that delight to resurrect the Vision, might as well conclude that they will never see her again, unless they start from Heart's Content, and pulling themselves along old ocean's bed, consult the "arrived" list of Pater Neptunus.

THE HISTORY AND ACTORS OF THE PRESENT ENTERPRISE.

In the recent Fair of the American Institute, in New York, a gold medal was awarded to G. H. Ingersoll for his improved metallic life-boat, now in such general use. The boat that took the prize passed up the Thames two days ago amid the wonders and cheers of thousands of John Bulls, who, when they sent over their big ship, never thought we would send them in return the smallest craft that ever lived in a sea. Early last spring Mr. Ingersoll was waited upon by a little, natty sort of man, five feet two inches in his boots, with light sandy hair, red whiskers, open features, and an eye that looked right straight ahead from its depths of blue. He said: "I want to rig that boat into a full three-masted ship, go over in her to Europe, and enter her for the Paris Exposition. If I fail, I fail; if I don't, I'll make my fortune. I know what I'm about—so does another man I take with me. We've been wrecked three times, and don't believe we were born to be drowned. Besides, a life-boat isn't a life-boat that can't cross the ocean. Will you let me have her?" "Yes," sealed the bargain. The boat already air and water tight, was furnished with three masts sixteen feet high; a full set of sails, amounting to sixty-five yards of canvas to all; was cargoed with enough for two men for eighty days, including the rations of a poodle dog, that was to be taken for company, and be used as a mop now and then to clean decks. The bold men, whom all thought fools, whom success has shown as skillful as adventurous, are Captain John N. Hudson and Captain Edward Francis Fitch, both of whom "ran away to sea" in youth, were cuffed up from cabin-boys to commanders by rapid progression, the one being forty-two, the other thirty-eight years of age.

From London to New York is, in round terms, 3,500 miles, and the thirty-eight days of their passage would rate their daily going at 92 3-19 miles, or 3 9-10th miles on an average every hour. This appears slow. Remember, however, the changes and chances of weather, and that as a purely sailing ship, The Red, White and Blue was exposed to them all, and the calms and adverse winds, and their progress is much hotter than sailing ships of 1,500 tons burden, which seldom are not less than forty-five, and often sixty days en route.

A NOVEL WAY OF MAKING CHANGE.—A novel way of making change was recently discovered at Hong Kong, in China. An American having complained to a native Judge of a tailor who had cheated him, the official sentenced the culprit to fifty blows with the bastinado—a sentence which was at once executed—and charged the American fifty cents costs. The Judge not being able to change the dollar given him by the American, the latter humorously told him to take it out in the same manner. Accordingly the tailor was again tied down, and received fifty more blows, thus making up in his own person the required change.

Gen. Walbridge's Address to War Democrats.

We give below the address in full of General Hiram Walbridge, of New York, to the war Democrats. No words of comment are needed. It sums up the points at issue in a terse manner, and is well worthy an attentive perusal:

New York, Aug. 28, 1866.

The political contest now imminent counsels us to review our position, and decide on our future action in the light afforded by the past. Let me entreat you to answer to yourselves these questions: Were we right or wrong in resolving to stand by our country and its flag when traitors desperately struggled to divide the former and strike down the latter? Were we right or wrong in our determination to spurn all party ties that threatened to weaken the efficiency or trammel the freedom of our efforts to maintain the integrity of our Union? Were they right or wrong who sought to paralyze the national arm upraised in self-defence against secession and disunion, who proclaimed a war for the Union a failure, after having done their best to make it so, and whose partial, short-lived successes were hailed with hearty cheers along the lines of the rebel armies? Is there rightful difference in your regard for the soldier who died fighting to preserve our nationality, and him who poured out his life-blood while battling for the rebel cause? My questions sufficiently indicate the answers I deem prompted by the instinct of true patriotism. Hating none; denouncing none; wishing ill to none; I yet love and honor those who struggled and fought to uphold the Union, as I do not those who did their worst to overthrow it.

Have we, then, who stood by the old flag, gained nothing by this triumph but the privilege of being ruled by those who fought for its destruction? Do the beaten rebels return to a dubious loyalty with all the rights they enjoyed before they plunged into treason? I think not. I hold that the loyal States and people achieved by their struggle a right to complete security against future rebellions on such grounds and with such impulses as were held to justify that of 1861. I hold that the present Congress is emphatically right in demanding that the States lately in revolt shall no longer enjoy a factitious and exceptional power in our national councils based on four millions of their people, whom they obstinately refuse to educate or enfranchise, and whom they divest of the arms and deny the military organization and discipline required to render them efficient in our national defense. In short, I hold that Congress is substantially right, and the President generally wrong, in the course which alienated them; and I propose to act with those who sustain Congress and oppose the President, until the controversy which now convulses the republic shall have been brought to a final issue.

Never doubting that such will be the logical consummation of the victories achieved by Grant, Sherman, Thomas and Sheridan, I respectfully solicit your concurrence in securing it.

Yours truly, HIRAM WALBRIDGE.

A CURIOUS THOUGHT—IS THE WORLD GROWING LARGER?—Is there not reason to think that this world is daily increasing in size? Is there not an action taking place on its surface analogous to that which occurs in a plastic cell when placed in circumstances favorable for its development? To illustrate this thought, we plant a little acorn, weighing a few grains, in the ground. In the course of time it becomes the large oak, weighing thousands of pounds and spreading its branches far and wide in every direction. This oak gets its weight and bulk principally from the air we breathe, and remains upon the earth thousands of years, perhaps, and undergoes a great many changes before it is finally restored to the atmosphere, even if this event ever does take place. So animals derive their weight and bulk partly from the air they breathe into their lungs, and partly from the vegetable productions which they devour. When animals die, their bodies, it is true, are partly decomposed into gas, and restored to the atmosphere, but they are principally seized upon and appropriated by growing vegetables, which in their turn are devoured by other animals. It thus seems to me that the earth, through the agency of its animal and vegetable productions, must be daily increasing at the expense of the atmosphere by which it is surrounded. In other words, the plants and animals of the earth are all the time appropriating to themselves the elements of the atmosphere, and forming out of them new compounds which remain upon the earth an almost indefinite length of time before they are decomposed and restored to the atmosphere. This idea is illustrated in our coal mines. All coal was originally wood, and like all wood, was formed principally at the expense of the elements of the atmosphere. This coal has remained upon the earth millions of years, perhaps, and now at length men, urged on by their necessities, are digging it up, and by burning it, restoring it in the shape of carbonic acid to the atmosphere, from which it originally came. No one, it seems to me, can doubt that the earth is larger now than it was when this coal existed in the form of wood. Although the world may be increasing now, it does not follow that it will continue to increase for all time. Sooner or later an equilibrium will be established between the amounts of elementary principles which the earth takes from and restores to the atmosphere. But at present, in my opinion, it is like a growing animal; its absorption exceeds its waste. In a word, our planet is not a full grown earth; it is merely an earthling.—Scientific American.

NATIONAL PECULIARITIES.—Edmond About says:

"At the age of twenty-five, an American, has tried a dozen ways of life, made four fortunes, a bankruptcy, and two campaigns, pleaded a cause, preached a religion, killed six men with a revolver, enfranchised a negress, and conquered an island. An Englishman has passed two examinations, been attached to an embassy, founded a counting house, converted a Catholic, made the tour of the world and read the complete works of Sir Walter Scott. A Frenchman has rhymed a tragedy, written in two journals, received three sword wounds, attempted two suicides, troubled the peace of fourteen husbands and changed his political opinions nineteen times over. A German has scarred the faces of fourteen of his most intimate friends, swallowed sixty tons of beer and the philosophy of Hegel, sung eleven thousand couplets, compromised a maid servant, smoked a million of pipes, and been concerned in two revolutions. The Roman prince has done nothing, learned nothing, suffered nothing. The grate of a cloister is thrown open, a young girl with no more experience than himself is led forth, and these two innocents proceed to kneel before a priest, who licenses them to begin a fresh stock of innocents."

While a salute was being fired at Gold Hill, Nevada, the gun exploded. A piece weighing one hundred and eighty pounds struck a plank in front of the new Yellow Jacket works, a distance of about a quarter of a mile from where the gun exploded; another piece, weighing ninety-four pounds, passed through the porch of the Yellow Jacket Company's office; a third piece, weighing fifty-four pounds, struck the Sacramento blacksmith and wagon shop, on Main street, opposite the Vessey House; a fourth piece, weighing ninety-one pounds and a half, fell on the hill below Fort Homestead; a fifth piece, weighing one hundred pounds was blown some distance north, and but fifty pounds of the gun remained at Fort Homestead. The most singular part of the circumstance is that although a number of persons were standing in close proximity to the gun at the time of the accident, not one of them was injured.

TO MAKE A WOMAN.—The Paducah (Ky.) Record says that an ingenious mechanic in that city is about to undertake to manufacture a woman out of the modern improvements, such as false busts, false hair, false teeth, false legs and and calves, palpitating bosoms, etc.; and the only thing that stumps him is how he will make the thing breathe. Before he gets the debris put together, thinks the Record, there will be some invention that will answer his purpose. We would advise the seeker after knowledge not to give much for a patent on his invention, however—it will never pay. It is impossible to improve on the real article, and "the generality of mankind in general" will stick to the old-fashioned order of womanhood, with real busts, real hair, real teeth, etc.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.—The Salt Lake Telegraph of September 12th says:

We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting with William Hepworth Dixon, editor of the London Athenæum, and W. Dilke (eldest son of Sir Wentworth Dilke, Bart. and M. P.), who arrived in this city on Monday. These gentlemen are on a visit to the Rocky Mountains, and speak very highly of their interesting visit to Colorado, and the pleasure the enjoyed with the two Governors and the leading citizens there. Dixon was remarkable for the antagonism to the North he exhibited through the columns of the journal under his charge during the late war.

SOMETHING NEW!

THE NEW LIGHT!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT, IS A UNIVERSAL necessity. A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney, and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense, trouble and annoyance, the chimney, is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided; it is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps; it is the cheapest artificial light that can be used, yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney Lamp, for one third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper-light, ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke, can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dnirene, corner of Morrison and First streets.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, And you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic!
